Continuing Students registering for the next semester are required to provide Proof of their Financial Clearance from the Bursar & "Academic Clearance" from Dean. Students will register for the assigned courses only. At registration, students will be informed of the subjects that they are required to take for that particular semester. Students who have failed courses will be subject to the requirements for make-up or retake them. Supplement examination (if any) should be taken before new semester registration to acquire Academic Clearance. Failing courses taken in last semester may preclude a student from taking all of the subjects that they may have expected to take. All decisions and issues regarding such course assignment are made by the Registrar and can be appealed to the appropriate Dean. Courses offered at GMUSOM per semester are pre-determined and scheduled per set curricular structure. Selected students will be offered and may take additional courses during a term provided there is no conflict in class scheduling and course pre-requisites. Registration for each semester will takes place between Monday and Friday of the first week of classes. Students will be provided with the class schedule for that semester.
